

Immediate Opening Inclusion Specialist/Special Education Aide (full-time) 2022-2023

Community Charter School of Cambridge (CCSC) is a public charter school that serves students in grades 6-12. Focusing on post-secondary success for all students, CCSC combines high academic and behavioral expectations with an environment of unconditional affection, acceptance, and belonging in which all students can grow and achieve. CCSC seeks dedicated, outstanding, and innovative faculty who are interested in:

- Joining our exceptionally diverse and talented team (50% administrators of color and roughly 40% faculty/staff of color for the 2021-2022 school year);
- Contributing to our rigorous academic program and strong school culture;
- Supporting the school's commitment to anti-racism, equity and restorative justice, which is reflected in our daily practices, policies, and systems; and
- Learning through professional development that is team-based and includes an extensive focus on race and equity.

CCSC is consistently one of the highest ranking middle/high schools in the greater Boston area. Please visit www.ccscambridge.org to learn more about our work.

CCSC is seeking a full-time Special Education Aide for the 2022-2023 school year. The ideal candidate is flexible, responsible and organized, and has experience working with students with a wide range of learning needs. The ideal candidate is caring, compassionate, and dedicated to students' success. In addition, has a versatile skill set and a willingness to proactively look for ways to support both teachers and students. This specific position entails collaborating closely with content and special education teachers to support students with IEPs by ensuring they receive the targeted support stipulated in their IEPs. In addition, the person will be required to fulfill other regular duties and commitments required of CCSC faculty and staff.

A CCSC Special Education Aide can expect to:

- Provide support in both the inclusion setting and in small group pull-out settings
- Regularly gather data toward IEP goals and input data into grade-level tracker
- Work closely with content teachers and the special education teacher to support students with Individualized Education Programs (IEPs)
- Implement various accommodations and modifications
- Provide input on student performance to help inform IEP Team meetings
- Work with a diverse student body from Cambridge, Boston, and surrounding cities
- Promote a school-wide culture of respect using the principles of restorative justice
- Engage with families regularly to support students' learning and well-being
- Participate in myriad forms of professional development as scheduled for all faculty

Qualifications:

- At least two years of college required
- Bachelor's Degree Preferred
- Experience working with middle / high school students in a school setting is preferred
- Experience working in special education, including knowledge of accommodations and modification, highly preferred

Salary

The salary range for this position is $40,000-$50,000 depending on experience.
